

Climbers of Color POC Climb Night (POCCN) Coordinator Roles & Responsibilities

Volunteer Title: POC Climb Night Coordinator (POCCN)

Responsibilities:

To schedule, manage, and oversee POC climb night operations with various gyms around the Washington area. The climb night coordinator is the main voice directly working with gym managers/staff to communicate the needs/requests of the community, namely to keep climb nights true to the mission statement of CoC and keeping affinity spaces welcoming. This includes:

- Working in conjunction with the Director of Community Engagement to develop partnerships with new gyms in regards to climb nights
- Communicating with current gyms regarding scheduling, facility usage, volunteer presence, and participant attendance
- Updating hosts about upcoming courses to mention during Climb Nights
- Schedule and organize climb night host meetings at least once every 3 months to onboard new hosts, discuss climb night related content and feedback.
- Work with the Merch Coordinator to stock and issue climb night kits (banner, tags, manual) for each gym
- Collaborating with the Social Media Coordinator to post photos of climb nights and information regarding future climb night events

Requirements:

- Familiarity with Climbers of Color mission, organizational history and current programming
- Attendance of all required CoC educational or strategic meetings
- Continue self education on DEI/J outside of the individual's demographic(s)

Oversight:

The POCCN Coordinator reports directly to the Director of Community Engagement

Commitment: ~1 hour/week

Stipend: $50/month
